June 5th, in Denver, is good for me.

Dear Mr. Guice:

It has been a couple of day since we exchanged emails. The deadline to complete your deposition is a week away. We need to know what day next week you are free to be deposed. It would be no trouble to take your deposition in Los Angeles if you prefer it over Denver. I estimate my questions will take 3-4 hours. Mr. Rogers will have questions as well. Mr. Malofiy may have follow-up questions too. Please email me today so all of us can plan our week. Thank you.

Jonathan D. Davis

Mr. Guice, someone has suggested completing the deposition in Los Angeles since you will be there for other purposes. Is that preferable to you? Regards, JDD

What I mean is, I agreed to do some writing work in LA. The deposition was scheduled for today and was postponed for whatever reason.

I rescheduled my work once already in order to finished the deposition today (May 29th/ 9:30am). Now I must figure something out in order to reschedule it once again. I am not sure if the 31st of May or the 4th of June will be free for me.

Dear Mr. Guice:

Thank you for your response. Would you please clarify what you mean by: "I will know definitely in the next few days." Are you saying that this Friday is unavailable, but Tuesday is a possibility? The Order provides that the deposition needs to be completed by Friday, June 7, 2013. If June 4 is also unavailable, please let us know what day you are available from June 5 to June 7. We need some advance notice in order to arrange our schedules and book travel arrangements. Thank you.

I will be in LA at those times. I will know definitely in the next few days. I've scheduled my work in LA around the fact that we were finishing the deposition on today. So plans have been made already.
